A Celtic Christmas—Featuring the Willis Clan

Saturday, Dec. 4 at 8:00 p.m. & Sunday, Dec. 5, 2010 at 2:30 p.m.
Silva Concert Hall, Hult Center

The Eugene Concert Choir presents a lively program of Celtic music and dance, featuring the Willis Clan from Nashville, Tennessee. This extraordinarily talented family of eleven beautiful children (10 performing--the newborn is not performing yet!) play a myriad of traditional instruments and have won championship dance competitions with their agile Irish step-dancing. The Eugene Concert Choir lends their 100 voices to join in Celtic song for a stirring holiday program for the whole family.

English Madrigal Dinner

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 10 & 11, 2010 at 6:00 p.m.
St. Paul's Parish Hall, 1201 Satre St., Eugene

The "Lords and Ladies" of the Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble invite you to step into the enchantment of the Sixteenth Century for a Renaissance dinner, with fine music, dancing, and revelry. Each course of the magnificent feast created by McCallum's Custom Catering is served with fanfare and pageantry, and the ambience of the event is enhanced by our local court musicians, Byrdsong Early Music Consort.

Mozart Grand Mass in C Minor

Saturday, February 26, 2011 at 8:00 p.m.
Silva Concert Hall, Hult Center

The Eugene Concert Choir with the Eugene Symphony
Stellar quartet of soloists featuring soprano Elizabeth Racheva

This magnificent great mass is second to none in soaring and exquisite melody. Mozart completed all but the final movement of this glorious work.

Amazing A Cappella--Starring the Swingle Singers

Saturday, April 16, 2011 at 8:00 p.m.
Silva Concert Hall, Hult Center

From their Jazz Sebastian Bach of the 1960's to the edgy Beatles arrangements and Beauty and the Beatbox sound of today, this eight-voice a cappella group from England has performed all over the world and won over 50 Grammy awards. A special grant from the Hult Endowment makes it possible for the Swingle Singers to join the Concert Choir and Vocal Arts Ensemble in an amazing concert of vocal prowess and to offer educational workshops for local high school ensembles.

Swingles for Kids

Saturday, April 16, 2011 at 11:00 a.m.
Silva Concert Hall, Hult Center

Continuing with our "For Kids" concerts, this program is a one-hour interactive excerpt of the Amazing A Cappella—Starring the Swingle Singers. Fun pre-concert activities begin at 10:30 a.m. in the lobby.

Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble Spring Concert
