

ECC/EVAE Newsletter, November 16 & 17, 2009

Volunteer Music Director Needed

Willamalane Adult Activity Center, which serves patrons age 50 and older, is looking for a volunteer music director for their singing group. Their director of 19 years recently retired. The group practices from 9:30 - 11:15 a.m. on Thursdays and performs in the community on Thursday afternoons. Please contact Trish Phetteplace, Program Supervisor, at 736-4411 for more information. Willamalane Adult Activity Center is at 215 West C Street in Springfield.

Renaissance Dance Practice CDs for EVAE

Richard Guy has created an excellent Renaissance Dance Practice CD. They have slow and graduated tempi for easy learning. Please pay him $3 directly if you would like to buy one.

We will practice several of the dances simultaneously next week. We could use 4 or 5 CD players so dance groups work on their dances in various locations in the church. Please let Diane know if you have a CD player with speakers that you could bring next week.

Reminder of Rehearsal Schedule Extras

This week, the Mason Williams band is attending EVAE's rehearsal on Monday. Next week, Mason and the band will be at ECC rehearsal, Tuesday, Nov. 24. The following week, EVAE members need to come to ECC rehearsal at Emmaus Lutheran, 18th & Polk, on Tuesday, Dec. 1 for the rehearsal at 7:15 p.m. All choirs, including South Eugene High School Concert Choir and the Young Men's Ensemble will attend that rehearsal with Mason Williams & Friends as well.

Openings for Servers

We have a good sign-up for servers at the Madrigal Dinner. There are still openings for a few more servers. If you have been considering it or have friends or relatives who are interested, please sign them up this week. Sheryl Aydelott will begin contacting, costuming and organizing the servers after this Tuesday's ECC rehearsal.

Volunteers for Mailing

Thank you to those who have helped get the precursor to our big fall mailing assembled and out the door. Next week (aaarghh! Thanksgiving Week), we will start assembling the final 4,000 or so letters and return envelopes for our annual fall appeal. Anyone who has any time at all, even an hour, please check with Angela in the choir office (687-6865) to be sure the office is open before coming in to help. This is a big job and will take several days to complete, so your assistance is invaluable. Thanks in advance!

The Practice Corner

EVAE and ECC: Mason Williams Holiday Show music