

The Lords and Ladies of the Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble

celebrate a return to our festive

English Madrigal Dinner

December 5 & 6, 2008
Friday and Saturday at 6:00 p.m.
St. Paul's Parish Hall
1201 Satre Street, Eugene

Gracious greetings to you our good and loyal friend!
You are hereby invited a great feast to attend . . .

The time has come to raise our glasses again and shout "Wassail!" At long last, the Lords and Ladies of the Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble gather together with our friends to celebrate the holidays with Elizabethan finery, feasting, song, dancing, pageantry and revelry.

In honor of this auspicious occasion, we have engaged the services of a renowned gourmet chef of McCallum's Custom Catering who will personally prepare the sumptuous feast.

Wassail

Loaves of Whole Grain Bread

Wild Mushroom Pie

*Stuffed Salmon Baked in Puff Pastry filled with Spinach, Mushrooms & Cheeses

*Roast Pork with Garlic and Herbs

Roasted Potatoes and Seasonal Vegetables

Fresh Field Greens with Pickled Vegetables and Mustard Seed Vinaigrette

Flaming Plum Pudding

Fig & Fruit Torte

(*A vegetarian alternative will be provided for individuals, with advance notice.)

The Lord of the Manor invites all to join together at his grand and elegant new residence. We welcome the exquisite sounds of our court musicians, Byrdsong Early Music Consort, and the Lords and Ladies of the Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble are eager to blend their voices in song.

Do not tarry! Seating is limited and delay could deprive you of this wondrous feast and beautiful music. Complete and mail your order post haste!

With sincere greetings from Lady Diane Kettack
for the Eugene Vocal Arts Ensemble
